JOURNAL OF THE

AUDIO ENGINEERING SOCIETY

SUBJECT AND AUTHOR INDEX

VOLUME 17-1969 NUMBERS 1-6

SUBJECT INDEX

Amplifiers

A Dual-Band Audio Limiter—James J. Noble and Robert J. Bird, No. 6, p. 678

Applications of the Audio Operational Amplifier to Studio Use—Ralph Gittleman and Donald Richter, No. 3, p. 298

Means for Visual Indication of the Overload Limit for Audio Power Amplifiers—Luciano Foa, No. 6, p. 663

Operational Amplifier Applications For Audio Systems—B. J. Losmandy, No. 1, p. 14

The Loudness Balance of Audio Broadcast Programs—Ernst Belger, No. 3, p. 282

Disc Recording

Compatibility of Stereo Recordings and Monaural Playback—I. J. Sobel and Ronald Knuebel, No. 2, p. 143

High-Density Disc Recording Systems—Leo M. Levens, No. 3, p. 309

On the Interaction between Tracing Correction and a Bandwidth Limitation—Duane H. Cooper, No. 1, p. 2

Performance Characteristics of the Commercial Stereo Disc—John Eargle, No. 4, p. 416

Stereo/Mono Disc Compatibility: A Survey of the Problems—J. M. Eargle, No. 3, p. 276

Toward a More Accurate Spatial Environment (L)—Peter Scheiber, No. 6, p. 690

Editorials

Challenges in Communications: 1988—J. R. Pierce, No. 4, p. 405

The Journal Goes Bi-Monthly—Harry F. Olson, No. 2, p. 256

Journal Report (Editorial)—Robert O. Fehr, No. 6, p. 760

Office of Editor to Change Hands (Editorial)—Robert O. Fehr, No. 4, p. 501

Office of Editor to Change Hands (Editorial)—Harry F. Olson, No. 4, p. 500

The 36th Convention—How It Goes Together and Who Does What (Editorial)—Benjamin B. Bauer, No. 3, p. 328

Electronic Music

Apparatus for Generating Serial Sound Structures—Hugh Le Caine, No. 3, p. 258

Electronic Music: Audio 1988—Daniel W. Martin, No. 4, p. 386

An Electronic Music Learning System—Victor J. Blong, No. 4, p. 431

An Electronic Piano—P. R. Dijksterhuis and T. Verhey, No. 3, p. 266

Music as a Source of Acoustic Trauma—Charles P. Lebo and Kenward P. Oliphant, No. 5, p. 535

Musical Flames—W. R. Babcock, K. L. Baker and A. G. Cattaneo, No. 3, p. 312

Musical Instruments with Electronic Amplification or Tone Modification (L)—Earle L. Kent, No. 3, p. 316

A Real-Time Multipartial Waveform Analyzer-Synthesizer—David Luce and Melville Clark, Jr., No. 4, p. 439

Hearing

The Ear As A Measuring Instrument—Harvey Fletcher, No. 5, p. 532

On Better Aural Prosthesis (Editorial)—Benjamin B. Bauer, No. 2, p. 172

Comments on "Better Aural Prosthesis" (L)—Anne Harrison, No. 5, p. 578

Comments on "Better Aural Prosthesis" (L)—Alex J. Szecsody, No. 4, p. 449

On the Control of Noise and Hearing Conservation (Editorial)—Benjamin B. Bauer, No. 4, p. 450

Some Promising New Techniques in Hearing Research—Edmund M. Glaser, No. 3, p. 292

Loudspeakers

Design Parameters of a Dual Woofer Loudspeaker System—Edward M. Long, No. 5, p. 515

Direct Radiator Loudspeaker Enclosures (Reissue)—Harry F. Olson, No. 1, p. 22

Experimental Determination of Low-Frequency Loudspeaker Parameters—J. Robert Ashley and Mark D. Swan, No. 5, p. 525

An Improved Theater Type Loudspeaker System—John K. Hilliard, No. 5, p. 512

Loudspeaker Phase Characteristics and Time Delay Distortion: Part 1—Richard C. Heyser, No. 1, p. 30

Loudspeaker Phase Characteristics and Time Delay Distortion: Part 2—Richard C. Heyser, No. 2, p. 130

Modulation Distortion in Loudspeakers—Paul W. Klipsch, No. 2, p. 194

Comments on "Modulation Distortion in Loudspeakers" (L)—T. S. Cole, Sr., and Reply by Paul W. Klipsch, No. 4, p. 448, 449

Further Comments on "Modulation Distortion in Loudspeakers" (L)—Arturo E. Stosberg, No. 6, p. 691

Medical Applications

Design of a Myoelectric Signal Conditioner—D. S. Childress, No. 3, p. 286

Feasibility of Automated Analysis of Phonocardiograms—J. E. Jacobs, Kazuo Horikoshi and M. A. Petrovick, No. 1, p. 49

Some Promising New Techniques in Hearing Research—Edmund M. Glaser, No. 3, p. 292

"Symbiotic" R-Wave Monitor—Thomas W. Argy and William H. Greenbaum, No. 5, p. 550

Transducer Development for the Artificial Heart or Heart Assist Devices—Philip Kantrowitz, No. 5, p. 539

Microphones

Calibration of Microphones by the Principles of Similarity and Reciprocity (Reissue)—Harry F. Olson, No. 6, p. 654

Comments on "Self-Contained Condenser Microphones" (L)—M. S. Hawley and Reply by Charles F. Swisher, No. 4, p. 447

Thin Bilaminar Piezodisks Used as Microphone and Telephone Membranes (L)—J. Roos and J. Koorneef, No. 2, p. 174

Noise Pollution

Legal Aspects of Noise Control (L)—Frederic P. Houston, No. 3, p. 324

Noise Pollution—Present and Future (Editorial)—Harry F. Olson, No. 3, p. 384

Recording Studio Equipment

A Modular Audio Facilities Mixing System—John P. Jarvis, No. 1, p. 61

A New Concept for a Capstan Drive System for Professional and Home Tape Recorders—Arturo E. Stosberg, No. 4, p. 423

Comments on "A New Concept for a Capstan Drive System for Professional and Audio Tape Recorders" (L)—T. S. Cole, Sr., No. 6, p. 694 and Reply by Arturo E. Stosberg, No. 6, p. 695

A Studio Tape Recorder of Novel Design—Zoltan Vajda, No. 6, p. 634

Synchronous Television Sound Recording—Michel Calmet, No. 3, p. 272

Sound Reinforcement Systems

Acoustical Modeling as a Tool in Problem Solving—Leo L. Beranek, No. 2, p. 151

Acoustical Problems in Non-Verbal Communication (L)—Harold Burris-Meyer, No. 2, p. 175

Analyzing Loudspeaker Location for Sound Reinforcement Systems—Don Davis, No. 6, p. 685

Broadband Equalization of Small Meeting Rooms—Daniel Queen, No. 5, p. 554

The Gain of a Sound System—C. P. Boner and R. E. Boner, No. 2, p. 147

An Improved Theater Type Loudspeaker System—John K. Hilliard, No. 5, p. 512

A New Music and Sound Effects System for Theatrical Productions—Dan Dugan, No. 6, p. 666

No Coded Signals (Reissue)—H. S. Morris, No. 2, p. 138

Sound Amplification Systems for San Diego All American Stadium—Wilfred A. Malmlund and David L. Klepper, No. 5, p. 560

Sound Reinforcement: Audio 1988—C. P. Boner, No. 4, p. 407

Sound Reinforcement for Banquet Halls, Ballrooms and Conference Rooms—G. E. Horn, P. G. Tandy and Percy Wilson, No. 2, p. 156

Special Reproduce System for Independence Hall, Knott's Berry Farm—Akio J. Hosoda, No. 1, p. 55

A Trailerized Acoustic Shell for Outdoor Performances of Symphony Orchestra and Concert Opera—Christopher Jaffe, Peter Quaintance and Charles Swisher, No. 6, p. 671

Sound Reproduction in the Home

Home Entertainment: Audio 1988—Harry F. Olson, No. 4, p. 390

Some Techniques Toward Better Stereophonic Perspective (Reprint)—Benjamin B. Bauer, No. 4, p. 410

Speech Processing

Effects of Intentional Interference with Speech Intelligibility—William B. Snow, No. 1, p. 42

Electronic Speech Compression (L)—Hideo Seo, No. 3, p. 320

On Better Speech Communication (Editorial)—Benjamin B. Bauer, No. 5, p. 582

Talking and Listening Levels in Verbal Communication—Importance of Specifying Parametric Values—Mark B. Gardner, No. 6, p. 658

Tape Recording & Reproduction

Magnetic Recording Tape: The Influence of the Magnetic Coating Thickness Upon Signal Parameters—William A. Manly, Jr., No. 2, p. 178

Mass Production of Prerecorded Tapes—Thomas D. Everett, No. 2, p. 165

The Measurement and Subjective Assessment of Modulation Noise in Magnetic Recording—E. G. Trendell, No. 6, p. 644

Measuring a Tape Reproducer with IEC-Response, Using NAB-Response Test Tape (L)—John G. McKnight, No. 5, p. 572

Polyester and Acetate as Magnetic Tape Backings—Delos A. Eilers, No. 3, p. 303

A Proposal for Updating the Half-Track Magnetic Tape Format (L)—Richard S. Field, Jr., No. 6, p. 690

Standardization of ½ in. Master Tapes for Musicassette Production (L)—J. Melis, No. 6, p. 690

Transducers

Transducer Development for the Artificial Heart or Heart Assist Devices—Philip Kantrowitz, No. 5, p. 539

Use of Solid State Transducers In Mechanics and Acoustics—Warren P. Mason, No. 5, p. 506

Transistors

Some Characteristics of Junction FETs in the Linear Region (L)—David Campbell, No. 4, p. 445

Transmission Facilities

A Differential Telephone Repeater Circuit (L)—Joseph H. Dessen, No. 5, p. 572

An FM Telemetry System for Transmitting Psycho-Physical Data—J. A. Boehm, III, No. 4, p. 427
